

RUTH MANNING

LLB (Hons)

Call 1993

Ruth practices in all areas of Private and Public Family Law in the Family Court, High Court and Appellate Courts.

She is instructed on behalf of applicant local authorities and respondent parties in care and adoption proceedings.

Ruth also has extensive experience in applications concerning all aspects of Child Arrangement Orders, Occupation and Injunctive proceedings.

Ruth prides herself on providing excellent client care.

Direct Access

Ruth is registered with the Bar Council to undertake direct access work.

Practice Groups

Family and Human Rights

Appointments

Ruth was a tutor at the College of Law, Birmingham from April 2008 to January 2010. She taught Civil Litigation, Alternative Dispute Resolution and Immigration options based on her previous experience at the Bar.

Membership of Professional Organisations

The Family Law Bar Association

West Midland Family Bar Association